

Biography:

Dean and Chair Professor of KoGuan Law School, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, since 2008;
Professor Emeritus, Kobe University, Japan, since 2009;
Professor, Graduate School of Law, Kobe University, Japan, 1996-2008;
Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Kobe University, Japan, 1990-96.
Visiting Scholar, Stanford Law School, U.S.A., 1991-92.
Law and Society Center of SJTU, since 2009;
Senior Research Fellow of the Department of Public Policy, China's Research Committee Economic System Reform, since 2008;
Guest Professor of School of Law, Tsinghua University, since 2007;
Fellow of the Virtual Center for Advanced Studies in Institution, the Tokyo Foundation, Japan, since 2007;
Researcher and Member of Planning Committee, International Institute of Advanced Studies, Japan, since 2006;
Member of Council of the Japanese Association of Sociology of Law, Japan, 1999-2011;
Board Member Co-opted of Research Committee on Sociology of Law, The International Sociological Association, EU, 1994-2002.

Key Works:Major books:

- 1) Switching the Institutions (Hangzhou: Zhejiang University Press, 2009), etc.
- 2) At Critical Point of Order and Chaos (Beijing: Law Press, 2008);
- 3) Orbit of Thinking Justice (Beijing: Law Press, 2007);
- 4) New Views on Constitutionalism (Beijing: Peking University Press, 2002, enlarged edition, 2005);
- 5) The Significance of Legal Procedures (Beijing: China Legal Publishing House, 2004);
- 6) The Composition of Chinese Judicial System (Tokyo: Yuhikaku Press, 2004);
- 7) Legal Change in Modern China (Tokyo: Japan Review Press, 2001);
- 8) A Hypermodern Law (Kyoto: Minerva Press, 1999);
- 9) Constructing Rule of Law (Beijing: China University of Law and Political Sciences Press, 1999);

Articles in English:

- 1) "To Take the Law as the Public: The Diversification of Society and Legal Discourse in Contemporary China", in Stephanie Balme & Michael W. Dowdle (eds.) Building Constitutionalism in China (Palgrave Macmillan, 2009) pp. 125-140, etc.
- 2) "Space of Choice and Judicial Discretion in China: A Perspective of Comparative Legal Culture" and "The Discretionary Power of the Judge: Regional Report China", in M.Storme & B. Hess (eds.) Discretionary Power of the Judge: Limits and Control (Kluwer, 2003) pp. 561-597;
- 3) "Judicial Independence and the Values of Procedure", in Social Sciences in China (the PRC., English Version) Vol.23 No.2 (2002) pp.96-106;
- 4) "Toward a Theoretical Model of Social Control in Relational Networks", in A. Febbrajo and others (eds.) European Yearbook in the Sociology of Law; Social Processes and Patterns of Legal Control (Giuffre Publisher, 2000) pp.279-302;

- 5) "Legal Aid in the People's Republic of China: Past, Present and Future", in L. G. Trubeck & J. Cooper (eds.) Educating for Justice Around the World; Legal Education, Legal Practice and the Community (Ashgate Publishing Ltd., 1999) pp.93-117;
- 6) "Power and People in Relational Network: Dutton on Chinese Social Control", in Law and Society Review (U.S.A.) Vol.29 No.3 (1996) pp.553-562;
- 7) "On Reflective Mechanism of Law Trial Implementation in China", Hans G. Leserand & Tamotsu Isomura (eds.) Wege zum japanischen Recht, Berlin: Duncker & Humblot, 1992, pp.753-769;
- 8) "The Transmutation and Inner Contradiction of Legal Culture in China", RECHTSTHEORIE Beiheft 12, Monismus oder Pluralismus der Rechtskulturen?, Berlin: Duncker & Humblot, 1991, pp.155-175;
- 9) "The Sociology of Law in China: Overview and Trends" in Law and Society Review(U.S.A.) Vol.23 No.5(1990) pp.903-914;